LITURGICAL AND DEVOTIONAL PRAYER

Sometimes we blend liturgical and devotional prayer, sometimes we eliminate devotional prayer, sometimes we confuse them. What is the distinction between liturgical prayer and devotional prayer, why are both necessary, and how do both help us appreciate more the great gift God has given us in the Eucharist? These are some of the questions that will be addressed, with an eye toward the Saturday conference on Eucharistic adoration.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION:

WHAT ARE WE DOING?

Eucharistic adoration has gained popularity among many Catholics today, continuing a long and rich tradition of Eucharistic piety in the Church. What is the source of this impulse toward adoring Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, why is it so helpful for growing in Eucharistic spirituality, and how do we come to a deeper appreciation of this great gift God has given us? These questions are addressed as we explore the four topics for the day:

- Adoration as Intimate Communion
- Shifts in Eucharistic Understanding and Spirituality
- Eucharist as Participatory Action of the Body of Christ
- Understanding and Practice of Eucharistic Adoration
