CONSTRUCTION AHEAD M6 GIRLS ONLY

Blessed are the Pure of Heart....

The pursuit of holiness is not found in some ideal "perfect" self. Our goal is not the achievement of this "imagined self", but rather of Christ.

How do I use my gift of self to create a holy image of womanhood?

Janelle Sanchez, Speaker and Author

ONE WAY M8

Blessed are the those who are Persecuted....

Working in a fallen world requires courage. It also requires tools, skills and materials.

How will we take the resources of our faith and build a culture of life and love?

Adam Marchese (Seminararian)

MEN AT WORK M6

BOYS ONLY

Blessed are the Pure of Heart....

To be pure in heart implies that our love is wholly directed toward the good of the other person. Daily there are challenges to this pure Christian love.

How does our faith challenge stereotypes of what it means to be a man?

Deacon Dave Gray

MERGE M2

Blessed are the Meek....

Understanding how to be meek is to remember the word "love." To be meek is to be strong in whatever ways strength is needed— but always with love. We have the spirit and courage through Baptism and Confirmation to love even during life's toughest trials.

How do we build a more Loving world?

Jay Davila

NARROW BRIDGE M4

Blessed are those who Hunger and Thirst...

People who use their skills and expertise for the common good, the service of others, and the protection of creation, are good stewards of the gifts they have been given. When we labor with honesty, serve those in need, work for justice and contribute to charity, we use our talents to show our love—and God's love—for our brothers and sisters.

What gifts do I bring to satisfy the hungers in the world?

Stephanie Bosse,
Fair Trade Ambassador

DANGER! HIGH VOLTAGE M7

Blessed are the Peacemakers....

It's a "call to action." Jesus said, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God," He didn't say, "Blessed are those who wish and hope for peace." We need to actively be seeking ways to make the world more peaceful. What are we waiting for?

How do I build a more peaceful world?

Rick Grinstead, St. Peters
