

End Human Trafficking Training Session

The Diocese of Orlando is collaborating with the Greater Orlando Human Trafficking Task Force as well as task forces in each county to increase the awareness of the severity of Human Trafficking in our community by educating and training priests, deacons and parish leaders.

Human Trafficking is considered to be one of the fastest growing criminal industries in the world. In the United States, Florida currently ranks third in the country in Human Trafficking.

Topics covered in the training include:

- How to recognize human trafficking
- Prevention strategies
- Community response
- Efforts to rescue those trafficked and prosecute traffickers

This training session is sponsored by the Office of the Permanent Diaconate.
