

Saint Charles Borromeo Catholic Church

December 17, 2014

Dear St. Charles Borromeo Community,

The Peace of Christ be with you during this Season of Advent!

I take this opportunity to inform you that Dr. Pamela Bernards, current Principal of St. Charles Borromeo Catholic School, has resigned due to personal reasons. Dr. Bernards' last day will be December 17th. Please join me in thanking Dr. Bernards for her years of leadership and wish her well in any future endeavors.

I am happy to announce the appointment of Mr. Nathan Nadeau, currently Assistant Principal of Annunciation Catholic Academy in Altamonte Springs, as Acting Principal for the remainder of this school year. Mr. Nadeau holds a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics Education from the University of Central Florida and a Master of Education degree in Educational Leadership from St. Leo University.

Mr. Nadeau began his teaching career at Bishop McLaughlin Catholic High School in Spring Hill, Florida. His experience also includes teaching at Bishop Moore Catholic High School as well as All Souls Catholic School. At each location, Mr. Nadeau taught math courses. Mr. Nadeau holds professional certification in Educational Leadership as well as Mathematics 6-12 and Middle Grades Integrated Curriculum 5-9. Mr. Nadeau's experience as Assistant Principal has prepared him to be an administrator in the Diocese of Orlando.

Please welcome Mr. Nadeau to our school and community family. I look forward to working with him to benefit the children of St. Charles Borromeo Catholic School. You will have an opportunity to meet Mr. Nadeau on Thursday, December 18th in the Social Hall at 6:00 PM.

May our Advent journey fill our hearts and minds with peace at the birth of our Lord and Saviour!

In Christ,

Rev. Ralph DuWell
Pastor
