Please give us feedback on your experience of the convocation by completing a short 13 question survey by CLICKING HERE.

We are assembling a planning team for the 2019 Convocation and Diaconate Retreats. If you are interested in being part of the team contact Jennifer Kuhn @ jkuhn@orlandodiocese.org.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Deacon Annual Documents  IMPORTANT

Thank you to those of you who have complied with the Diocesan policy to submit the annually required documents. Return rate for the Annual documents are as follows:

- Safe Environment / Background Clearances: 100%
- SME & Pastor Assessment w/Continuing Formation Report: 68%
- Funeral Arrangements: 59%
- Policy Manual Acknowledgement: 72%

This means approximately one third (35%) of the deacons serving in the diocese are NOT in good standing, making them ineligible for transfers, appointments, or diaconal service outside of the Diocese of Orlando and could result in the loss of faculties. Notices will be sent out this week to individual deacon via email.

RECOMMENDATION: On a monthly basis update your continuing formation form in preparation for the next due date of June 1, 2019. All the forms are on the Deacon Webpage in English & Spanish.
NOTE: Those completing the forms in Spanish must have them translated to English prior to submitting to the Office of the Permanent Diaconate.

Serving With The Bishop

Confirmation. Tis the season! Bishop Noonan, along with Jon Trout, is making the rounds to confirm our young people. As Bishop mentioned in his comments at the Diaconate Convocation deacons are often torn between the roles they are asked to play during the confirmation ceremony (i.e. serving the Bishop as the deacon and confirmation sponsor).

We are called to serve in one role. How do you choose between serving at altar or as a confirmation sponsor? A wise priest once told me, you must serve the highest need.

- If there is no deacon present but need you to serve there, or
- If you made the commitment to be a confirmation sponsor and walked with a young person through their formation this is the higher need (even if there is not a deacon on the altar). The Bishop will understand.

If you are serving as the deacon we ask that you follow all the instructions given by Jon Trout who is familiar with the expectations of the Bishop.

MINISTRY TO THE INCARCERATED The Diocesan Ministry to the Incarcerated has recently updated its ministry service lists for mentoring and sacramental services to the incarcerated. Volunteers Urgently Needed to Assist, Victims of Hurricane Michael

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee in collaboration with Catholic Charities of NW Florida is seeking volunteers. As you may know, two-thirds of the diocese was majorly impacted by Hurricane Michael. They are in need of 50 volunteers, seven days a week, for several months! Catholic Charities is staging food and water distribution at Saint Dominic Catholic Church in Panama City and assistance is needed in distributing water, basic supplies and unloading trucks. The water and supplies are going directly to the Panama City Community and our other churches in the area.
Father Luke Farabaugh explains, “We are hurting for volunteers...We would love for groups to come from out of town to bring that fresh energy and enthusiasm. We need your help.”

Anyone who is able to assist is welcome to sign up.
