“For nothing will be impossible for God.” (Lk 1:37)

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Save the Date! Mark your calendar now for an exciting formation opportunity for all deacons and priests. Bishop Shawn McKnight from the Diocese of Jefferson City will be a featured speaker at the Orlando Liturgical Conference on Thursday, August 22, 2019. Bishop McKnight’s topic will be “Deacons: Servants of Charity” and will include a focus on the complementary vocation of priest and deacon. Bishop McKnight was the plenary speaker at the 2018 National Diaconate Conference in New Orleans. ALL deacons and priests are encouraged to attend.

Social Media and You There are many blessings to this age of Social Media in which we can stay connected with friends and family around the world. For Deacons, we must remember that by nature of our ordination we are at all times representing not only ourselves but also our Church. Any time we post on a social media site we should speak from a place of the love, mercy, and joy of the Gospel. We must refrain from personal attacks or inflammatory remarks against any person or group. Our statements must be consistent with Catholic teaching and must be offered with courtesy and love. When we do this, Social Media becomes an effective tool of evangelization.

Welcome to our two new Extern Deacons who have just been assigned within our Diocese.

1. Deacon Pat Mongan returns to us after a stint in South Carolina and will serve at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, Viera
2. Deacon Joe Catanello comes to us from Brooklyn, NY and will serve at St. Theresa Catholic Church, Belleview

New Assignment: Deacon Paul Gaucher has been assigned to St. Mary of the Lakes, Eustis, FL.

We would like to thank the Sisters from the Servants of the Pierced Heart, who were the Retreat Masters for our February Deacon Retreat. The Deacons who attended this retreat loved the Sisters and their spirit. It was no surprise to us of the positive feedback from the attendees.

Thank you for representing our Order of Deacons so well! We encourage all deacons to work closely with their pastors and Jon Trout, Manager of Bishop Matters, in preparation for these events to ensure we meet all expectations.

MINISTRY OF CHARITY & JUSTICE

MINISTRY TO THE INCARCERATED The Diocesan Ministry to the Incarcerated has recently updated its ministry service lists for mentoring and sacramental services to the incarcerated. We are in particular need of priests willing to celebrate Mass and Deacons to provide Eucharistic services in select prison and jail facilities throughout the Diocese. For information or inquiries please contact Deacon Richard Dodd at volunteermti@orlandodiocese.org.

CHAPLAINS TO BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA The Secretariat for Laity and Family Life is in need of chaplains for the Boy Scouts of America in the Diocese of Orlando. The goal is to have one chaplain per Deanery. This is a fitting ministry for deacons, especially if you have a long-term association with the Boy Scouts. Please contact Deacon Dave Camous at dcamous@orlandodiocese.org if interested.

TOURISM MINISTRY The Tourism Ministry seeks to bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to travelers who visit Central Florida for work or vacation. We are currently seeking two deacons to assist with the chaplaincy at Orlando International Airport. Future opportunities for deacons include the Apostleship of the Sea at Port Canaveral and potentially at the Basilica, Mary Queen of the Universe Shrine. If interested, please contact Deacon Dave at dcamous@orlandodiocese.org.
