Marriage Preparation Guidelines

Congratulations on your decision to receive your Sacrament of Holy Matrimony! The marriage preparation process is designed to guide engaged or civilly married couples towards a sacramental marriage celebration and provide essential tools to live out this lifelong covenant. These guidelines for marriage preparation apply to all Catholics in the Diocese of Orlando.

A| PRELIMINARY INTERVIEW

The first step is a meeting with the parish priest or deacon to begin the wedding planning and preparation for married life. This should take place between six to twelve months prior to the anticipated wedding date and before any wedding or reception arrangements are made. During this interview, the priest or deacon will provide an explanation of the Pastoral Guidelines for Marriage Preparation.

B| ASSESSMENT FOR DETERMINING READINESS

The priest or deacon will use a variety of methods to assist in determining the maturity of the couple and their readiness for marriage. A premarital inventory (FOCCUS or Fully Engaged) will be administered and diocesan forms will be completed.

C| SETTING THE DATE

The final date for the wedding is not to be set until the entire assessment process (A & B) has been completed and a decision to proceed has been made.

D| INSTRUCTION

After the readiness for marriage has been determined, the couple will finalize the wedding date and begin the instruction process. The priest/deacon will outline the sacramental preparation required.

E| WEDDING LITURGY

The couple will plan their wedding liturgy with the priest. Areas for liturgical planning include the selection of the scriptures, music, liturgical ministries and other related issues.
