CONVOCATION

Please mark your calendars....

Diaconate Convocation
Saturday, October 2, 2021
Holy Family Catholic Church

We look forward to assembling as a community for our annual convocation. We are finalizing details which will include Mass with Bishop Noonan, the renewal of our promises, the institution as acolyte for Cohort 2022, a keynote presentation, time for Q&A with the Bishop, and (hopefully!) a Friday evening social.

MONTHLY MEMORIAL MASS FOR OUR DECEASED PRIESTS

The Office of Senior Priests celebrates a monthly Memorial Mass for priests who have passed into eternal life. The Masses are held at San Pedro Spiritual Development Center and are a beautiful way to remember the lives of these faithful servants. All are welcome to attend. Deacons are especially encouraged to be present to honor our brothers in Orders. The next scheduled Memorial Mass is:

Wednesday, July 14th - 10:30am

THE DEACON AS A BRIDGE IN TIMES OF DIVISION

Despite the truth that there is more that unites than divides us, human nature too often focuses on what separates us. As deacons, we have an important role to play in bridging the gap instead of deepening the divide. This month there are two important areas where we can perform this function. As our Church carefully moves forward in removing restrictions imposed during the pandemic, we need to respect the feelings of people on both sides of the issue, while demonstrating absolute support for our pastors and Bishop. For some of us, we also must be bridge builders in welcoming new pastors into our parishes. Change in pastoral leadership can be challenging for parishioners, staff, and especially for the priests who are changing assignments. As bridge builders we can help the priests establish new relationships, while walking with those in the parish who may be grieving the loss of a respected spiritual leader. These times provide a perfect opportunity for deacons to live our call to serve the people of God.

ADMINISTRATIVE

ANNUAL FORMS ALERT!

Annual forms were due June 1st, 2021. Congratulations to the 39% of all active and 'senior active' deacons who met the deadline. Special acknowledgment to the deaneries who led the way with greatest participation so far.

Western Deanery - 58.3%
Southern Deanery - 53.3%
Northern Deanery - 46.5%
Central South Deanery - 34.5%
North Central Deanery - 33.3%
Eastern Deanery - 17.4%

Have no fear, we will still accept your forms, as they are required annually to keep you in 'good standing.' Please don't delay in turning them in. You can find your annual forms on our website. CLICK HERE to download. We will not issue you a letter of GOOD STANDING without receiving your annual forms.

FREE INTERACTIVE THEOLOGY WORKSHOP: “The Deacon as Preacher”

Wednesday July 14 from 7-8:30 PM EST

To RSVP and receive the link to the seminar- Email: randall.woodard@saintleo.edu

This interactive seminar will share ideas from three deacons on the importance of prayerful preparation and delivery of homilies and practical suggestions for continued development of preaching. Featuring: Deacons Mike Miller, Bob Pierce and Glenn Smith. Deacon Mike Miller is a staff chaplain at the Moffitt Cancer Center in Tampa, and previously served for several years as a parish pastoral associate. Along the way Mike earned an M.A. in Pastoral Studies from St. Leo's and an M.Div. from St. Bernard's School of Theology. He was ordained a deacon in the Diocese of St. Petersburg in 2019. Deacon Bob Pierce is a permanent deacon of the Diocese of Charleston and one of the instructors for homiletics training for permanent deacons. Deacon Glenn Smith a permanent deacon (Diocese of St. Petersburg), ordained in 2015. He attended Cardinal Glennon Seminary (philosophy) and Kenrick Seminary (theology), earning degrees in pastoral theology and divinity while discerning priesthood.
